

OSFO Executive Committee Meeting

Thursday 1 August, 2019

Pacific Games Review

- Yvonne Mullins presented to the Pacific Games Council about what OSFO does and the benefits of being a member of OSFO
- Yvonne Mullins and Ryan Pini also attended the Sports Committee meeting at the Pacific Games in Samoa
- Ryan Pini was re-appointed to the Pacific Games Council Athletes' Commission

Communications Update

Since the appointment of an Administration & Communications Coordinator – Laura Macintosh - progress has advanced on several of our communications projects:

- New OSFO website – new domain name has been registered, new website plan has been approved by the Executive Committee
- Monthly communications plan is being prepared for OSFO Facebook page
- Several aspects of the OSFO 2016-2020 Strategic Plan are now being addressed by having someone in the role of Administration & Communications Coordinator

General Business

- Milton Bradley – current member of the Pacific Games Sports Committee – was appointed by the OSFO Executive Committee as the interim OSFO Member (one of two current vacant positions), a position which is to be ratified at the next OSFO General Assembly
- Current OSFO bank balance is just under $40,000
- 2020 OSFO General Assembly is to be held in Guam – dates to be confirmed ASAP

Positive Edge Journal

- Edwina Ricci is continuing discussions with Korowa Anglican Girls' School around their requirements for the journal
- In relation to the journal, Edwina Ricci and Ryan Pini are discussing what could be done different with this at future events (like the Pacific Games)
- Ryan Pini to discuss with ONOC Athletes' Commission about how we can implement the Positive Edge journal as part of the Athlete Wellbeing program at future events

Positive Sports Coaching

This program is currently unavailable while a review of its format is being undertaken.
